

Thursday morning, September 6th, 2012

	Pre-congress educational course Nocturnal Enuresis and other Lower Urinary Tract Symptoms (LUTS) Sponsored by the International Children Continence Society (ICCS) Coordinator: T. Nevéus (Sweden)	Pre-congress educational course The metabolic syndrome	Pre-congress educational course Peritoneal dialysis Coordinator: E. Verrina (Italy)
8.45-10:30	Terminology, bladder and bowel physiopathology and interactions T. Nevéus (Sweden) Genetics of enuresis and LUTS S. Rittig (Denmark) Treatment of monosymptomatic and non-monosymptomatic nocturnal enuresis J. van de Walle (Belgium)	The metabolic syndrome: epidemics and diagnosis P. Socha (Poland) Hypertension M Litwin (Poland) Long-term cardio-vascular consequences of childhood-onset metabolic syndrome M.C. Matteucci (Italy)	Lessons from the IPPN network F. Schaefer (Germany) Mechanics of PD M. Fischbach (France) PD solutions C. Schmitt (Germany) PD adequacy evaluation A.B. Warady (USA)
10:30-11:00	COFFEE BREAK
11.00-13.00	Incontinence and other LUTS: diagnosis and evaluation S. Rittig (Denmark) Pharmacological treatment of incontinence and other LUTS M. Maternik (Poland) Non-pharmacological treatment of incontinence and other LUTS K. Krzemiska (Poland) The neurogenic bladder M. De Gennaro (Italy)	Diabetes and dyslipidemia Speaker ? The metabolic syndrome after renal transplantation M. Litwin (Poland) Renal disease / Obesity-related FSGS Pathologist ? (the same pathologist as in the interactive session?) Can obesity and metabolic syndrome be prevented ? P. Socha (Poland)	Treatment and prevention of infections A. Zurowska (Poland) Life threatening complications: sclerosing peritonitis C. Stefanidis (Greece) acute blindness E. Verrina (Italy) Blood pressure control J. Groothoff (The Netherlands) Growth and nutrition L. Rees (UK)